JOURNEY OF A VISIONARY

- His father had been known as the "fifth son" of Mahatma Gandhi and his parents and grandparents had spent time in British prisons for the sake of Indian independence
- He didn't fear of going to jail for the (illegal) excess production. Also, the fact that he was producing a commodity that most Indians needed gave him the strength to take the risk.
- He established factories at Akurdi and Waluj and worked hard to expand BAL- now the world's fourth-largest maker of motorized scooters, three-wheel vehicles, and motorcycles - India's most common forms of transportation.
- To lower costs while improving the price and quality of the products, he increased production to avail "Economies of Scale"
- In this environment, the company was limited to produce just 20,000 units a year. Supply and demand didn't match. Hence, after placing their order, customers had to wait for roughly ten years to receive it.
- He was a recipient of many more national as well as international honors.

“He is a man of integrity, honesty and tremendous courage.”

– Ratan Tata

ACHIEVEMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS

- He is a visionary leader who scaled Bajaj Auto from a mere Rs.5.72 million to Rs.46.16 billion. He created one of India's best companies in the difficult days of the license-permit raj.
